

Fresher's Party

18th May 2023

"Every great journey begins with a single step." - Lao Tzu

Institute of Vocational Studies recently hosted a splendid Fresher's Party on 18th May 2023. This much-anticipated event was organized by the enthusiastic second-year B.Ed students, under the invaluable guidance of Principal Dr. Mandira Gupta. The aim of the party was to extend a warm welcome to the first-year B.Ed students, creating an atmosphere of camaraderie and excitement as they embarked on their academic journey at the institute.

The Fresher's Party was an evening filled with joy, celebration, and the promise of new beginnings. The second-year B.Ed students meticulously planned and executed every aspect of the event, ensuring that the first-year students felt valued and embraced in their new educational environment.

The venue was beautifully adorned with vibrant decorations, creating an ambiance of delight and enchantment.

The program commenced with a heartfelt welcome speech by the second-year students, who expressed their excitement in hosting the event. They emphasized the importance of unity and support among the B.Ed students, encouraging the fresher's to step forward with confidence and embrace the transformative opportunities that lay ahead.

The highlight of the day was a mesmerizing talent show, where the first-year students showcased their diverse and remarkable talents. The stage came alive with captivating performances, including singing, dancing, poetry recitations, and instrumental acts. The freshers' talent and creativity were truly awe-inspiring, leaving the audience spellbound. In the students were provided with refreshments.

The Fresher's Party at the Institute of Vocational Studies was a resounding success, thanks to the dedication and creativity of the second-year B.Ed students and the guidance provided by Principal Dr. Mandira Gupta and all the faculty members. The event created a warm and welcoming environment for the first-year B.Ed students, igniting their passion for learning and inspiring them to achieve greatness.

