

LOHRI CELEBRATION

13 January 2023

INSTITUTE OF VOCATIONAL STUDIES celebrated Lohri on 13 January 2023. The celebration was held on college premises. The day was commemorated with immense joy, enthusiasm and magnificence.

It is a great way to understand about the rich heritage of India and its festivals. Celebration with enthusiasm of all the activities inculcates qualities like creativity, sensitivity and togetherness in a more fun and happy way. One of the major festivals of India, Lohri was celebrated, with enthusiasm and fanfare at the Institute of Vocational Studies. Lohri festival is usually celebrated on 13th day of January, every year. Lohri is also considered as harvest festival and it is an important day for the farmers.

In order to fulfil the objective, many activities had been organised for the event. For example, dancing, poem recitation etc. Dance was done on most of Punjabi Bollywood songs. Their movements captured the essence of the music. Many Punjabi folk songs and poems were sung by participants. Their performance enhanced Indian culture and values at best. Their work was excellent and mesmerizing. The programme was organized coherently. It was a great opportunity to watch these efficient minds creating and depicting creative messages through different forms. All the students participated in the activity with great zeal and enthusiasm.

The students of IVS thoroughly enjoyed the event.
