

Rangoli Making Competition on G-20

09th June 2023

Rangoli

वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम्
ONE EARTH • ONE FAMILY • ONE FUTURE

The Institute of Vocational Studies organized a vibrant Rangoli making competition on 09th June 2023, centered around the theme of G20 "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" a Sanskrit phrase from ancient Indian scriptures that means the whole world is one family. The activity involved the four houses: Teresa, Tilak, Ghalib, and LaxmiBai, and was conducted under the guidance of Principal Dr. Mandira Gupta and Teacher in Charge Sangeeta Kaushik. The objectives of the activity were to celebrate cultural diversity, promote teamwork among the students, and raise awareness about the G20 summit. Through the creation of intricate Rangoli designs, the participating students showcased their artistic skills and expressed their understanding of the G20 theme. The event was a successful display of creativity, teamwork, and cultural expression

Each house and its corresponding participants demonstrated remarkable skills, determination, and exemplary teamwork, contributing to the overall success and memorability of the competition. Following is the result:

Position	House	Students
First	Tilak House	Palavi Priya and team
Second	Teresa House	Jaishree and team
Third	Ghalib House	Anamtha and team
Fourth	Laxmi Bai House	Aditi Garg and team

Expressing deep gratitude to the esteemed faculty for their unwavering support and guidance.

In conclusion, the remarkable competition brought together a diverse group of participants who showcased their exceptional skills, determination, and teamwork, making it a memorable event for everyone involved.
