

Analysis of the Feedback from Employers for the year 2020-21

The IQAC (INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL) cell is active for providing quality education and betterment of the students learning experiences .As a pioneer institute for providing quality education in the field of teacher education, it is our prime concern to focus on skills, values, creation of knowledge and competencies. To cover the aspects of proper functioning of the institution there is always the scope of collecting feedback from various stakeholders to cover the related aspect. This feedback is taken from the employers with

The item-wise analysis is as mentioned below:-

S.NO	QUESTIONS	YES	NO
1	Institution provides outcome based education and lifelong learning	86	12
2	Professional ethics and value education is developed through curricula	90	10
3	There is balance between theory and practice through curriculum	88	12
4	Examination (Theory and Practical) is conducted timely within the institution	91	9
5	The fee structure is followed and charged as per the norms and guidelines of affiliated university	95	5
6	There is appropriate provision of fund(grants/scholarship) for students and staff	87	13
7	There is cordial relationship among staff and subordinates	92	8
8	There is provision of training/projects/research related work for upgradation of faculty and students	89	11
9	There is provision of life skill/technical skill	93	7
10	Teamwork capacity is appropriate	90	10

SUMMARY

The response from the employer about the functioning of the institute is mentioned in the table that has been collected through questionnaire. The response are in favor towards cordial relationship among staff, teamwork capacity, examination system and outcome based education.

- Institution provides outcome based education and lifelong learning
- Professional ethics and value education is developed through curricula
- There is balance between theory and practice through curriculum
- Examination (Theory and Practical) is conducted timely within the institution
- The fee structure is followed and charged as per the norms and guidelines of affiliated university
- There is appropriate provision of fund (grants/scholarship) for students and staff
- There is cordial relationship among staff and subordinates
- There is provision of training/projects/research related work for upgradation of faculty and students
- There is provision of life skill/technical skill
- Teamwork capacity is appropriate

Action Taken

There are some suggestions that has been given by the employers that needs to be incorporated by the institution in proper functioning

- Weekly check on the grievance issue within the institution
- Conduction workshop/seminar in promoting value education on regular basis.
- Organizing workshop on capacity building among teachers

Institution provides outcome based education and lifelong learning

Professional ethics and value education is developed through curricula

There is balance between theory and practice through curriculum

Examination (Theory and Practical) is conducted timely within the institution

The fee structure is followed and charged as per the norms and guidelines of affiliated university

There is appropriate provision of fund (grants/scholarship) for students and staff

There is cordial relationship among staff and subordinates

There is provision of training/projects/research related work for upgradation of faculty and students

There is provision of life skill/technical skill

Teamwork capacity is appropriate